Chapter 1 by J-DOG

The hilly, seaside town of Exeter holds a secret.

Harold Khan has the perfect life working as a computer programmer in the city and boating with his caring boyfriend, Mohammad Ferguson.

However, when he finds a ribbed torch in his cellar, he begins to realise that things are not quite as they seem in the Khan family.

An accident leaves Harold with some startling questions about his past, and he sets off to cold Exeter to find some answers.

At first the people of Exeter are friendly and stable. He is intrigued by the curiously clever psychiatrist, Christiana Jolie. However, after she introduces him to hard liquor, Harold slowly finds himself drawn into a web of jealousy, fraud and perhaps, even violence.

Can Harold resist the charms of Christiana Jolie and uncover the secret of the ribbed torch before it's too late. or will his demise become yet another Exeter legend?
